AAPSCM® CERTIFICATION

Chartered Healthcare Procurement Solutions Professional (CHPP)®

Leading the Future of Healthcare Procurement with Expertise and Innovation!

About this certification

The CHPP® Certification serves as the foundational credential for analysts and professionals specialising in healthcare procurement. It equips individuals with the essential knowledge and skills to navigate the complexities of procurement and supply chain operations in medical and healthcare settings. This certification is designed to address critical challenges, including the need for stronger clinical engagement in procurement processes.

Common Challenges in Healthcare Procurement

- Limited Communication Channels – Lack of structured frameworks to facilitate dialogue between clinicians and supply chain teams.
- Diverging Priorities – Clinicians often prioritise patient outcomes, while procurement teams focus on cost-efficiency — creating tension in decision-making.
- Knowledge Gaps – Absence of structured frameworks to facilitate productive, evidence-based dialogue between clinical and supply chain teams.
- Resistance to Change – Hesitation to adopt new procurement protocols or technologies that alter established clinical workflows and practices.
